Working with collection goods

Edit item

You can edit goods in "Last viewed goods" collection — change name, description and also item photo which will be shown on the home page.

Since the collection is created automatically, sooner or later the item may disappear from it, ceasing to be popular. However, even after disappearing from the collection, the item will remain edited.

We recommend editing "Last viewed goods" to make it easier for your customers to browse and select a item. However, it is most productive to "tidy up" "Last viewed goods" collection first, especially if you have a large flow of visitors to your site.

You can customize title, description and photo to suit your target audience.

Open "Last viewed goods" collection in Catalog Collections Last viewed goods section.

Click "Edit" button (with a pencil image) in the upper right corner above the item.

A form will open where you can edit item name, description and also upload another photo of the item which will become the main one.

Swap goods

It's impossible to swap goods.

Item position in collection is determined by site statistics which puts Last viewed goods in the first places for all visitors.

Delete item from collection

You can "Remove" goods from collection not to show certain types of items in this block (for example, items for adults or certain brands).

However, the item will not be deleted at all, it will go to the list of items Restrictions.

We recommend setting up a restriction to display through a product category (for example, adult products, alcohol, etc.) or through a brand (for example, H&M, Adidas, etc.) if you don't want to display a whole group of products on the home page.

Restrictions items are not allowed for sale by default, but sale can be allowed without returning them to the home page of the site.
